

Announces an Exciting New Partnership

Minneapolis, MN - September 27th, 2024 – HRIZONS®, An HR Cloud Company is thrilled to announce a game changing partnership between HRIZONS and Semos Cloud, a pioneer in people and culture intelligence. This partnership would allow both companies to offer more comprehensive, integrated HR technology solutions to enterprise clients, particularly those in the SAP ecosystem, while leveraging each other’s strengths in implementation, expertise, and innovation.

Why This Partnership Matters

- Clients benefit from a streamlined HR function that fosters a culture of recognition and communication, significantly improving employee’s growth.
- Data-driven insights to help HR leaders make informed decisions that drive both operational efficiency and employee satisfaction.

“Our collaboration with HRIZONS will help us together, drive an outstanding employee experience and help businesses make the best out of the talent they have and with that improve business performance. This partnership will also help Semos Cloud expand its mission by helping employees become more successful at work,” said Filip Misovski, Semos Cloud CEO.

HRIZONS is renowned for its global advisory services focused on guiding organizations through the complexities of cloud-based HR technology implementations. As a dedicated advocate for optimizing core HR functions that enhance the overall employee experience, HRIZONS’ CEO Jim Newman added that “by teaming up with Semos Cloud we are able to offer our clients a proven, state-of-the-art technology solution that helps build company culture and drives outstanding business outcomes.”
